
BONUS: How to extract VIDEO/AUDIO from any video file to iPhone/iPad/iPod (Windows and Mac). Videos and audios are stored in many different formats on our iPhone, iPad and iPod and it is not always possible to transfer them in their original format to our computer. These videos and audios are also used for all kind of purposes like playing movies on iPhone, recording audio from a microphone on iPad or creating a video using some video editing software on iPod. However, it is never possible to make changes to the original format of the videos and audios and that is why we have these software that allows us to get these videos in their original format. Let's say that we have a video on our iPhone that we don't know how to get rid of some of its extras, the software that we are going to show you here will allow us to get rid of all of them and change our video in the best possible way.
